“ Although I never got to meet Ms. Betty in person, I have delivered product many years to her husband and son. I never will forget one year, she sent via Johnny some home made candy and snacks for the road. They were so good. I feel as though I knew her, from her son Chris who was always front and center with his family. He often kept me updated on Ms. Betty. I know she was a Godly woman and a God fearing woman, such as her husband and son. I know she will be missed, but we can rest assured, God says to be absent from here is to be present with him. I am sure heaven is rejoicing. Just to think of where she is now, is enough to put me on shoutin' ground. My prayers go out to Chris and Johnny and the rest of this wonderful loving family.
