“ Aunt Cindy was such a sweet lady who i could call anytime to chat and was always there with open arms. You have always been so helpful and kind to everyone you met. I'm so grateful for you when my mama was so sick and you would always tell me she was a strong lady and you would tell me she would be ok. She loved talking with you she would always tell me. Aunt Cindy you will always shine in my heart and our family we will always keep your memory alive. Love you uncle Donny your soul mate is depending on you to take care of your babies now. May God give you peace.
