“ Annette was one of my dearest friends, ever. We shared a common faith as lived out in everyday life, and tried to comfort each other when we had losses. Her vivacious spirit and kind heart made her unique and unforgettable! I lost contact with her a few years ago, and I had been trying to find her, but just discovered that she is no longer with us. I will always treasure the memory of this incredibly artistically, talented and loyal friend. My deepest sympathies to Tom and the rest of her family.
