“ Vicky, Kim, Pam, and all Connie's family and friends, this is such a hard thing. Such a sadness when one so precious leaves us. We have the memories, and they sustain us through the hard days to come. Connie leaves a legacy of a wonderful life well-lived through her children, and their children, who continue her spirit through the generations. May God grant you peace as we live in hope of a glorious reunion with her again.

Love you Ms. Mary Triplett Davis.

“ I'm so sorry to hear about the passing of Mrs. Connie Clark. She was truly an exceptional teacher whose impact on her students and colleagues was profound. Her dedication and ability to inspire excellence were evident, and it's no surprise that she was recognized as Neshoba Central Elementary's Teacher of the Year. Mrs. Clark's legacy will live on through the countless lives she touched. She will be greatly missed by everyone who had the privilege of working with her.

“ Im so sorry to hear about Connie's passing. She had to be one of the sweetest souls I've ever known. John was like one of my own kids as he and Jessie were growing up together. Connie always would ask me about Jessie every time I ever was fortunate enough to bump into her around town. Our prayers are with her family today and the days to come. Connie and her beautiful smile will definitely be missed. But heaven is sweeter today with Connie there.
