“ When I was in high school & long before cell phones, I was coming home from the fairgrounds by myself. It was close to dark & most people were already home from work. I turned at Neshoba heading home & "POW", the worse sound you want to hear anytime, but, especially at dark. I got out to see the damage & a car passed by, slowed down, turned around & came back. Out stepped, Mr. Dan Griffin, my hero, my new best friend. He asked who I was & explained he knew my Dad. He told me to open the trunk & before long had my flat fixed & had me on my way home, which he made sure by following me to make sure I got there safely. I always enjoyed seeing him when He & Sherry came to vote & He reassured me He was taking care of things next door. Thank you, Mr. Dan.
