“ My heart is broken... Daniel and I have helped many of the same individuals although we work at different Tribal programs. We had many long talks in my office about the work and PEOPLE we care so deeply about. Daniel had a huge heart and great love for his people and family and friends. I will miss seeing him on Monday mornings, and I will feel a void... My thoughts and prayers are with you Hester and your entire family. I love you dearly. If you need anything, I am here...

“ I first met Daniel when I was 8 yrs. old. A group of us Choctaws from Oklahoma came and stayed at the church next to where he lived, during the Fair on several occasions. We spent time together at the church, and running back and forth at the fair. One day we were at his house, and his dad was doing beadwork. He showed me how to make rings, and when I returned home, I made rings for lots of people. I haven't been back since those days in the late 70's, but last year, Daniel and I reconnected on fb. I was hoping to get down there in the future to go to the fair, and to visit with Daniel. My thoughts and prayers are with his family, and someday if I get there, I hope to pay my respects to a childhood friend. May you rest in peace.

Ron, thank you for those kind words about my brother, Daniel. He was always kind and gentle, much like our father. I remember the group that stayed at Green Hill Methodist Church grounds. However, it was probably me you saw doing beadwork and not my father...our dad didn't know how to bead. I learned when I was 9 y/o, so more than likely you saw ME beading. Anyway, thank you for sharing your fond memory of my brother. You can message me at +16014165931, again, Che Yahkohkihlih...

“ A judge once ordered Daniel to play the piano for a small church as part of community service. He continued to serve that Church because a desire to serve God grew in his heart! For many years now Daniel had been Music Director, pianist and song leader and was seen leading music ministry for community members in need. Praise God for His power to transform! kanimash inliho, ittalohonwachi hakinlih!”
