“ I will never forget growing up with you, Danny Wayne. You were my first best friend, my hero. I always loved coming to stay at your house. You never treated me like a girl. I was just one of the guys. We had fun. Got into trouble together, went to church together, sang together. We were always together till I had to move away. I have missed you, but you have and will always be in my heart. Wait for me, in heaven I will see you there. ..
