“ I'm very sorry for your loss. Your dad always had that little smile or smirk on his face. I realize now that he knew we were always up to something, and we were. Now he is in heaven playing cards at the "Big NCO Club" in the sky with my dad and a few other great men.

“ The memory that sticks out in my mind is my 13th birthday, my dad bought me my first softball glove, sat me down and showed me how to oil it up & shape it. Then took me to his practices & taught me how to play. Can't throw a ball worth anything now, but I sure had the bestest time ever. Miss you dad INFINITY & beyond..... Sonji

“ Uncle David was the best and Christmases were more special when we knew he was coming! My favorite Christmas Eve involved Sears, Krystal and a race car set. Special memories brought about by a special man. None better than you Uncle David!

“ Uncle David, you were the best a nephew could ask for. I'll always remember the great times we had hunting together, a lot of laughs, just guys being guys. You were like a second father to me always there with advice and encouragement. I miss you.

“ Uncle David was one of a kind. It was great having him in my life. I have many wonderful memories of him at Christmas time. He was a constant figure in mine and my siblings life. We spent time together this past Sunday recalling all the fun times he was a part of in our lives. He was loved by all and will be deeply missed. He was one of the greatest uncles in the world.
