Mrs. Dean Vance King, 70, passed away on Monday, June 4, 2012 at Doctors Hospital Burn Center in Augusta, Georgia, after being injured in a fire on Tuesday, May 29, 2012 that destroyed her home in the Arlington Community. She retired after working 25 years at Neshoba Central School. She worked first in the elementary school cafeteria before moving to the middle school. She also drove a school bus before retiring. According to the Neshoba Democrat, Gail Breazeale, food service administrator for Neshoba County Schools, said Mrs. King had a special love for the children, which made it hard for her to retire about four years ago. "Dean always tried to see the good in everybody. She always had a positive attitude. She loved the children and she loved her job." Mrs. King was a member of New Zion United Pentecostal Church.

Mrs. King was preceded in death by her parents, L.C. Vance & Emma Lou Laird Vance; brothers, Harmon Vance & Horace Vance.

“ *There are many things in life
That we cannot understand
But we must trust God's judgement
And be guided by his hand,
And all who have God's blessing
Can rest safely in His care.
For He promises safe passage
On the wings of fath and prayer.
may God give you all strength and comfortyou all are in my prayers.

“ *We are so sorry for your loss. May God keep his comforting arms around each one of you during this really difficult time in your life.
May he continue to give each of you strength in the hours, days, weeks, months and even years ahead as you deal with your loss.
We are praying for the entire family. May God bless all of you.*
