“ Doris Guthrie (or Dee as I called her) was very special to me. In a short period of time we became good friends. Our meeting was by chance. While walking in the neighborhood one afternoon, I encountered Dee outside looking for her keys. So I helped. The rest they say is history. I took her to doctors’ appointments and reminisced about family and friends. We enjoyed each other’s company and were blunt and honest with each other; not really sure who was harder headed! She exasperated me sometimes but more importantly she made me laugh and feel loved. I was happy that she went to live with family but missed her very much. I have included a photograph of a sunset shortly after Dee’s passing. I thought of her as I took this photograph...bright and colorful! She will be sorely missed by me. (Elaine Williams)
