“ Mama I will never forget the day God called you home. I know you was ready. Hard life we had mama. That day was truly hard for me in more than one way mama . I know you with me, you come to me in my dreams. And moved the balloon in karters birthday to let me know you are still here. Mama so much is going on. So much pain . I'm trying hard mama . You said years ago that you never had to worry about me cause I'm the strong one. That's not true mama I'm hurting so much inside. If not for God I don't know how I would make it. Stay watching over me mama and asked God to be with me plz. I love you always ❤️ and forgive you
