“ I spent many nights in the Russell home with my friend Jane. Peggy made me feel like I was part of her family. We all played board games, cards, or other games. There was always laughter. I loved to hear Peggy sing. Our loss is a gain for Heaven's choir.

“ *Dear family,
So sorry to hear of Peggy's passing. She was a loving, thoughtful, and caring friend. She did a wonderful job planning and hosting our class reunions. I will miss her cheerful spirit. May God give all of you peace as you go through the days ahead without her physical presence.*

“ I loved Peggy for so many reasons. She was beautiful inside and out. She sang (is singing in Heaven!) like an angel. Most of all, she loved us. She loved the unlovely and made us feel loved. She taught us music, and how to live. Her legacy is her love of people and love of her God. How he must be welcoming her now.

Who knows how many people have sung praises to God because of her influence. Like ripples in a pond, she taught people who became teachers and her legacy keeps going forever.
