“ Known this man for 20 plus years. We kid around about who's the best basketball player Magic Johnson or Larry Bird. Got a chance to do some rabbit hunting with him and enjoy each other for a long time. One of the nicest and funniest guys I know. Great father to his Mitzi & Amanda and grand father to my daughter. I will miss him. Always good to my family and I. Rest easy friend...

“ My most heartfelt condolences on Jimmy's passing. You're all in my prayers.

My life long friendship with Jimmy began when I was in the first grade. Being a rather "chubby" child, I wasn't able to get on the monkey swings like the other kids. He, being ahead of me a few grades, was apparently on the playground also. I had never met him but he came out of nowhere and lifted me up onto the swings! Throughout my teenage years, when things got rough, he was always there with words of wisdom and support...he "lifted me up" many times throughout my life. Recently I've enjoyed many phone conversations with him, when we'd talk about old times, our dogs and then, just because we enjoyed "firing each other up", we'd discuss politics and religion for a bit!

He will be most missed. My heart goes out to you all. He spoke often of his family, Betty, Mitzi, Mandy and Keyshana...he was obviously very proud of you all!
