“ I don't know Kathy. I just saw her photo and her smile. I do not mean to intrude, but for some reason, her photo seemed to jump out, and it touched me. From her picture, it immediately became clear that she was a good person, A happy and joyful person that could have been a friend. A person who changed things by her mere presence. Please accept my condolences. As you continue to reflect on Kathys life, please remember there is only one true God, and his name can be found at Psalms chapter 83, Verse 18. He is a Spirit; you cannot see him, but he sees you. He knows your pain and sorrow, He loves you, and he wants you to love him in return.
