“ Kim, I will never forget our numerous fun times at the terrace. We would make fun when there wasn't any lol I wish we could have one more New Years Eve party. I know you are with Jesus, your mama, your sister, Scott. If you don't mind, rub Killer's ear for me, and give Scott a big hug. I sure wish I could be there today to see you off, but we talked about this, just I was supposed to go first. Prayers for Sandy, I promise I will go check on her. Love you, Kim. See you when I get there.
