“ Sandra, Mom & I are truly saddened to read of the loss of your mother. I know that all daughters & mothers have a special bond and yours had to be very, very special. Mom & I will pray for you and your family during this time and in the months ahead. Do not be saddened by her death. She loved her church and her God. She is healed sing with choirs of angels and walking the streets of gold. She would want you to be happy. Please call us if there is anything we might do for you. Much love.
