“ Lamar was so good to my mom Sara Jane when she was going through her illness. Her eyes would light up every time she saw him and she spoke so fondly of him when he was away. I admired him for how he served our country and just for his laid back nature. At least now he has no pain. He will be missed.

“ Ties that go unbroken. I remember Wylie from when we served together in Bravo Co. 3/187th 101st in I Corps Vietnam 1969-70. Always cheerful and a good man. I remember Wylie as most of us remember each other as a young man. We're much older now but when we recall our brothers we see their faces as they were then and that is how I'll always remember Wylie. When we gather again in Lexington, Sept. 2014 we will honor his memory. May God bless each of you in this time of sorrow and keep in mind that Wylie is in Heaven.
