“ Lasha was my classmate at Neshoba Central and ECCC. She and I got the chance to reconnect and work together a few years ago. She was always so sweet and hard working. She loved her children so much. She will be missed because she was one of a kind. Take your rest my sweet, beautiful, friend.

“ When I first meet Sha she welcomed me into the family with open arms her and her mom(Nikki) I was kinda shy being my first time meeting her but she made me feel comfortable by making me feel like family each time I saw her she was always smiling and making sure those babies were straight at all times.....she was big on family! My last time seeing her is when she came to Houston to visit she didn't want to do much far as going out she just wanted to enjoy her family who she didn't see much do to us moving to Houston. This is a very hard pill to swallow but I'm sure she wouldn't want us sad but instead remembering her as she was with each of us. It's going to feel funny coming to Philly and not seeing you at the family gathering. I just wanna say thank you for accepting me into the family you will truly be missed
