“ I’m so sorry for your loss. I met Mr. Miles on my way to Jackson several years ago. We stopped at his truck on the side of the road to buy vegetables. He was so happy to share his thoughts about his sorghum molasses. He convinced me to buy a bottle. It has taken me a while to use the molasses because I didn’t know how to use it and things to make. Over the years, I’ve used it in baking. I finally understand his enthusiasm. I wish he was still around for me to share my excitement about his molasses. I’ve made some great cookies with his molasses.
Mr. Larry was a wonderful man from the few minutes my husband and I spent talking with him that day so many years ago. He loved people and the Lord.
