“ Joe Harris was a wonderful person, a great neighbor and as good a friend as a person could ever have. He was my Daddy's partner playing marbles when they were children and were never beaten. I gave Joe one of Daddy's stone marbles when my father passed on. He was pretty good in basketball too from what my father told me. Joe had a great sense of humor and sure loved to fish. He treated us just like family. I'll sure miss him. My heart goes out to Jane, David and Josh. I love y'all and am praying for everyone.
