“ I worked with Ms. Peebles at Miles College for over 10 years. I will miss her. We had many conversations and discussions about teaching, about East Asia, and many other topics. She loved Susie Hannah and talked about her all the time. She was proud of her success and looking forward to her marriage to Andrew this summer. She was a valued colleague at Miles College.

Marlyn, I will miss you a lot. I can't believe you are gone. We discussed about Tokunbo's wedding next year and I said to you am gonna pick you up couple days before the wedding. You were excited. I can hear you calling Agatha as you always. I learnt a lot being a friend of yours. You were a sister and family to Benson's family. May your soul rest in peace.
