“ I served with Marino in the Army. He was a gentle soul who demonstrated patience and a love for God, always. I will always remember our conversations and his honest and genuine demeanor. The world was a better place with his presence in it. My deepest condolences to his family. 1st AD 2nd Battalion 37th Armor "Courage Conquers"

“ I just found out that my dear old friend has passed. I hadn't heard from him since 2013, and assumed we just lost touch. Since college we would lose touch, reconnect, lose touch again and reconnect and catch up and talk and on and on. I just assumed that I would hear from him again. I am deeply saddened that I missed his memorial. I pray that his family are well. I wish I would have tried to contact him sooner. BUT I will never forget our times and his gentle spirit and sense of humor! I pray his children are well kept in the image of the great man that he was. MY prayers are to his wife, children, parents and siblings. Rest well Marino "HickDawg" Hickman.
