Ms. McCraw, 65, of Philadelphia, passed away on Wednesday, March 11, 2015 at her residence. She was born in Laurel, MS on January 18, 1950. She was a graduate of South Jones High School in Ellisville, MS. She attended Jones County Jr. College and graduated from Hinds Jr. College with an RN in nursing. She worked at St. Dominic Hospital in recovery and was instrumental in setting up the first outpatient surgery unit. Kidney Care Inc. was bought out several times, but the last purchaser was Fresenius. Ms. McCraw worked for them a total of 28 years before she was released to early retirement due to her liver disease. Her hobbies include baking and flowers. She attended Linwood Baptist Church.

Ms. McCraw was preceded in death by her parents, David Jefferson "Pete" Odom & Lois Marie Hollimon Odom; son, David McCraw, grandparents, Nollie & Nancy Hollimon, uncle & aunt, Tommy & Jenny Hollimon & uncle, Carl Hollimon.

Survivors are her husband & lifelong friend, Richard McCraw; daughters, Shelli McCraw Douglas (Archie) of Brandon; Shanna Marie McCraw (Tad Dean) of Philadelphia; son, Richard Lyon "Ricky" McCraw of Philadelphia; sister, Judith White of Hattiesburg; (7) grandchildren, Lauren Douglas, Thomas Jeffrey "T.J." Douglas, Camryn McCraw, Maggie Douglas, Jesse Miles, David Miles & Brantley Dean.

Pallbearers are Cody Wilson, John Posey, Darren McCraw & Richard Watkins.

The family would like to take this opportunity to thank all who lovingly cared for her through Quality Hospice, Sta-Home Health, Elizabeth Spreafico, FNP and Dr. Belenchia.
