“ Just to share a word of comfort of my friendship with Ms. Mary Agnes Steve. When I first started working in 1983, she was one of the few people who I came to know immediately. Her kindness and respect for others truly showed me that she is a wonderful person. Over the course of the years, our paths were separated because of our jobs. A couple of years ago I was happy to see her again and she was smiling, like always. She asked if I remembered her and I told her I did because of the smile she always had. Mary Agnes will be greatly missed. We give our sympathy to her family, children, grandchildren, and her friends for comfort and peace knowing that she is with the Lord today.
