“ Something I will always remember about Megan I became her school bus driver when she was in kindergarten when she was in 1st grade one afternoon as she got on the bus she told me Mrs Miles I hate school I just want to die and go to heaven well I just looked at her and said Megan you will still have to go to school in Heaven which she replied you do and I said why yes you do how else are you going to learn how to become one of Jesus’s angel’s to which she thought it over for about 3 seconds and then replied well heck I’ll just stay here then . She was a special person and I know she will be greatly missed .
