“ *Mel was made of all things that make a great friend; he was kind, a good listener and had a joke to shoo away every bad moment. He was such a funny character and sometimes I think he just did silly things to spark laughter. But that was his superpower- the ability to make people laugh. I missed the opportunity to say thanks for being my friend Mel but i hope you knew.

“ Melford was such a kind, generous, thoughtful person. He was one of the first people I got to know well when I came to Mississippi back in 1995. He was so knowledgeable but also so humble. He listened carefully to his elders, and in his own right became a powerful resource for cultural knowledge. We have lost an incredible human being. I will really miss him. Peace, prayers, and condolences to his family.
