“ Myra and Spot were big in my life growing up. They had a zest for life and loved each other. I was invited to a dance my Sophomore year in high school. I did not know how to dance, and said I was not going to going. My brother, said, “Yes, you are and we are going to teach you to dance!” He and Myra, with three small children to care for, stopped everything and taught me how to dance. Of course the kids joined in and the whole house was dancing! We had a blast! Myra and Spot were fun loving, sweet, kind wonderful, people and I loved them both so much! Blessed to have had them in my life!

I'm sorry for the loss of Aunt Myra! She was a big part of our family visits to Philadelphia. My mom and dad double dated with Uncle Spot and Aunt Myra. My dad and mom loved them very much!! Aunt Myra will always be a warm and happy memory. God bless you, Kayron, Danny, Randy, and the rest of the family. Debbie Thrash Bennett
