“ Mr. Print was one of the finest men I ever had the privilege of knowing. His joy for life and his love of his family was evident every single time I ever saw him. I don't believe that I ever saw him that he wasn't smiling. He just always had such joy. He loved my daughter as if she were his own grandchild and she truly was grand to him, so I guess she was his grandchild. I am thankful that he was my friend. Such a special person has left us and there will be a void that only God can fill for us. My thoughts and prayers are with all of his family and friends. He was a great daddy, papaw and Pa Print or Pa Mint as sweet Katie says.
