“ Mary, I'm so very sorry. Ralph was a good neighbor to Mom, as well as you. I'll Remember him picking up pecans and delivering them to Mom so she'd make him a pecan pie. He looked out for her. He offered to watch her house each time we left town. Ralph will be remembered. Mom too as well as Doni is buried at Mars Hill Cemetery. I'm sorry I learned so late about his death but I'll take extra flowers for him when I go to Mom's and her entire family to put flowers near Christmas.
Again, I'm sorry for your loss!

“ Mary, our prayers continue but now for you, your family and Ralph's family. Seek the Lord and he will comfort you in your time of sorrow.

We, having both gone through the same thing made it through our sorrow by asking God to help us. My present wife and I thought our days of happiness were over. That was not so. We found each other and are now one. Even if we had not found each other there was happiness in our family and our faith. Happiness never ends as long as you have Christ to lean on.

Love in Christ to your and your family
