“ To the family of Rick Mathis,
I offer my truly sincere condolences. Though I have only worked with your dear husband/father for a few months, his presence here at each morning brightened my day. He went out of his way offer a hand, amused all with his quick wit and beamed with pride when talking about his beloved family.
Peace be with you,

To the family, my condolences.

Rick, one way or another I know you will see, hear, feel this message because it is from my heart. Your best friend has called you home. No one can guess the reason why. But, your family and other friends will feel the loss of your presence. You will never be forgotten because as long as you remain in someone's mind, you are not forgotten. That's a thought I borrowed from a German philosopher and truly believe. I truly believe you were met at the Golden Gate by Peter in a highly modified Ford Mustang. It probably had the Ford name in the blue oval in the grill replaced by your name, in simple handwritten script..Rick. Zooming through the gate, you might have thought of another way to trick that car out, too, but hopefully you enjoyed that ride into light rays brighter than the sun's as Peter drove you through the clouds. I'll never forget your attempts to convert me from German auto fool to American Mustang cowboy. Didn't quite work, even when you threw the keys to your brand new Supercharged Mustang at the office, smiled, and said take it for a ride. Absolutely amazing hearing the belt slap that engine into higher levels of extra legal speed and a margin of performance I had never experienced. Bliss for someone like me. Much like having you as a friend. I will miss you. Your family will miss you. But you will never be forgotten.
