“ MRS. RITA CAROL ROBINSON

“ Carol was a cousin of mine. We grew up about half a mile apart and spent many days in our youth playing together eating at each other's house especially on weekends after church. Cousins don't have that closeness much anymore and unfortunately when one married and moved away often times that closeness was gone. The memories linger on and at times like these we remember them with fondness. Even though I don't personally know her children my heart goes out to them as it is never easy to not have your Mother around to talk to. You will want to pick up the phone or go to her house many times the next few weeks and even years from now you will think of something you will want to tell her. My prayers for you all as you pay tribute to her.
