

MR. RONALD WILLIS- BLOUNT

January 6, 1947 - November 1, 2020

Ronald Willis-Blount died November 1 at his home in Burnside after a short battle with cancer. Ronny was born January, 1947 and grew up in Philadelphia. After graduation from PHS, he became a paralegal and served with the US Navy in Viet Nam. After retirement, he moved from Washington DC back to Mississippi where he enjoyed gardening and caring for his multitude of animals.

Ronny is pre-deceased by his father, Dr. J. M. Blount and his mother, Joann Reese Page.

He is survived by companion Robert Lorenzo, siblings: Dr. Jo Harbour-Rudsenske, Laura Page Rawson, Joe Page; nephews and nieces: Rev. Eric Rudenske, Dr. Ben Rudenske, Austin Tingle, Alli Thomas, Jake Rawson and Reese Page and cousins: Dr. Randall Reese and Reginald Reese.

Family described Ronny as "a repentant sinner who obtained peace in the Promise of salvation and had a sweet and loving spirit". No service has been set.

Tribute Wall

“ MR. RONALD WILLIS-BLOUNT

November 16, 2022 at 12:23 PM