“ Roslyn was a meek and humble person. Now she could be the reverse if she needed to be. she loved fishing and while living in Georgia she fished with all her spare time. She would wade out in the water about waist high, hang her fishing string in her belt loop. Fishing with her one day, me on the bank, her wading I saw movement around her fish string.. Lord it was a snake.. I yelled and told her, she said, he is after the fish not me. She just kept fishing. She loved her family and all her friends. She loved working in the dirt. She said the Lord meant for us to work in dirt and plant and He would give the increase. She was like a sister in law to me. She could sew, made a lot of my clothes. She wore many hats. Gonna miss you girl. God bless the family..
