“ Rudy was a dear friend for 20 years. i met him through his neighbor and fellow golfer, Clyde. Over those years i played in his Saturday and Sunday games and he kept my families' three vehicles running.. Our agreement was for me to pay him $100 a month. After my children were out of college I paid him the balance due. There are not many professionals who would run his business like that. It got me through the tough financial years. That is the definition of a friend.
