“ Growing up in a small community and having an in ground swimming pool meant that I never left home, but all my friends came to my house. My parents, and my family adored Scott and Robert! These two brothers spent many hours laughing, swimming, hanging out and playing card games with our group. Even as we aged, Scott and I always found a little time to catch lunch and catch up! He kept me informed on how Robert was, and all our other friends. Scottie was a man with a super smile and a wonderfully kind heart. He always enjoyed life and never let the strings of being a grown up pull him away from his fun, exciting nature! He was a force of a man that believed in giving 110 percent. His smile, and fun, easy laugh will be missed on this earth. God has gained a fun sole in the heavens, that I'm sure will be taking over the task of happy for new comers! Thanks for always being my friend Scott! I'll pray for peace for your family, and especially for your wife until they see you again! Love and hugs my friend! Sincerely, Trina Holifield
