“ I have typed and typed and erased 13 times over. So, I'll just speak on what I know to be facts. You were a shoulder, a helping hand, a brother (even when we didn't share dna), a light in the dark. You were the best of friend. You didn't care how bad you had it. As long as you could make someone smile. That's what I admired and will always. I've always considered you family and I'll never deny that. I love you bro. You knew when to brighten up someone's day even when yours felt dark. You wanted happiness around you even when you were down. You thrived off of others happiness. I'll forever love you for that. Rest In Peace brother. I love you Taylor Craig. Brookleigh and I are lucky to have you watching over us.

“ Taylor was such a good friend to anyone who took the time to get to know him. If a friend needed him, he was there, whether it be by phone or in person. If it went a while, without contact between us, he would make a point to reach out and check on me. He had such a big heart! I'm so glad that I was able to know him and have him as a friend.

“ Taylor, I can't begin to explain what an honor it's been being your friend. In school when I was down and having bad days you'd always draw me roses and try to help me draw them myself. You made it look so dang easy!! Something so simple always made my day. I'm so happy we kept in touch over the years. Until we meet again friend!!

“ Taylor, we shared many a deep conversation about life, god and existentialism. You had a good heart and I hope everyone is finding comfort in that you're finally at rest, at peace. My thoughts are with your family.

“ My condolences go out to Taylor's children and family. It was a joy knowing of Taylor Bryant. He loved his kiddos infinity and beyond. One memory with him, he loved eating out of canned foods that needed to be heated to eat.. And his laughter and just him being sarcastic.

“ He is the father of my children. A brilliant father at that.
