“ Dear Aunt Lillian, Vicki, Charlie, and Tony,

We have been praying for all of you and thinking of you since Uncle Virgil became so ill. I know this must have been so difficult for you. Our prayers continue. I want you to know how much I remember Uncle Virgil's constant wit when we were growing up. He could always make us kids laugh and had so much fun teasing us. I remember the pretty kimonos he brought back from Korea. Grandma Green had one and I thought it was so beautiful. I also recall how much Lillian and Virgil are alike: she is also witty and loved to tease him. I miss my family so much. xoxoxo Deborah

“ Mr. Green was the best supervisor i ever had while employed at The Merchants Co. We worked with each other for 3 years. Very good man can still picture him pulling in my driveway to ride with me on sales route. Always had kind things to say to every one. Lost two good friends the same day him and my Dad. You will be forever missed Mr. Green Sincerely George Benton

“ Virgil's parents were our "cross the road" neighbors when we built our home in the Longino community and our sons loved to ride their bikes to Mrs. Edna's for cookies and milk--she always had something for them and loved their coming and going. What a great family and soooo missed! They'll be together now!
