“ Me, Jessica, Tharren and Brook were in Mississippi last September after hurricane Ida. We all went bowling including Josh and of course my sister and brother n law william....we had fun. Me and lil William stayed outside talking while Jessica was inside getting the rest of her stuff to load up. That was one of my most precious moment with him just chilling looking up in the sky checking stuff out. It was time to roll out and I'll never forget hugging him a couple different times tight telling him how much I love him and would be back next summer to visit again!! God i had no idea that was the last time I'd see him again, 5 months later and he's gone 😞😞😞. He called me Nana, I cherish that title. He grew up to be a fine young man I was proud of. I just don't understand any of this, why HIM??!

“ One of my favorite memories of my son William was when he found out(had to guess) what he was getting for Christmas and when he guessed laptop.....he ran all over the house in circles screaming because he was so happy. I am begging anyone to share a memory so I can know more about my son. I know he always stood up for the weaker ones that couldn't defend themselves. He loved his job, his friends, family, and just a happy and a beautiful soul.. I miss you William gage
